PLAINTIFFS' REQUEST FOR LEAVE TO FILE REPLY IN SUPPORT OF MOTIONS TO AMDEND THE COMPLAINT AND REMAND

NOW COMES Plaintiffs Brenda Tracy LLC, Set the Expectation; Jane Doe 1; Jane Doe 2; and Jane Does yet to be identified (hereinafter collectively “Plaintiffs”), by and through their attorney Eric Delaporte of Delaporte Lynch, PLLC, and respectfully seek leave of the Court to file the following Reply:

1. 28 USC § 1446 requires Defendants desiring to remove a civil action from State to Federal court file a notice which “contain[s] a short and plain statement of the grounds for removal.”
2. Allegations of complete diversity “must be apparent from the pleadings.” Leys v. Lowe's Home Ctrs., Inc., 601 F. Supp. 2d 908, 912 (W.D. Mich. 2009). Plaintiffs did not include allegations in the Complaint, nor did Defendants in their Notice of Removal, that would allow this Honorable Court to make a prima facie determination of the citizenship of all Defendants. In the absence of such allegations, the Court cannot “simply assume.” Id.
3. Here, Defendants provided notice only that they were removing based on the existence of a federal question under 28 USC § 1331, not diversity jurisdiction. ECF No. 1. Defendants did not allege diversity jurisdiction in their notice. Id.
4. Remand of a case to State court from Federal court is appropriate when “there is a defect in the removal process” or “when the principles of abstention necessitate state, rather than federal, review.” Snyder v. Shelby Cty. Bd. of Educ., No. 2:14-cv-02048-dkv, 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 195376, at *3 (W.D. Tenn. Mar. 27, 2014).
5. 28 USC § 1654, which governs when a person may proceed personally or by counsel, “does not permit plaintiffs to appear pro se where interests other than their own are at stake.” Bass v. Leatherwood, 788 F.3d 228, 231 (6th Cir. 2015).

6. Under 28 USC § 1654, “a corporation can only appear by attorney,” it cannot proceed pro se or otherwise represent itself. Id. at 230.
7. The U.S. Federal Court for the Western District of Michigan also specifically prohibits corporations and partnerships from representing themselves in an action before the court. Exhibit 1 – MIWD “Filing Without an Attorney.”
8. Thus, Defendants’ removal of this action is procedurally defective and therefore the case should be remanded back to State court. Defendants Belveal and Defendants Foley & Lardner, LLP were not permitted represent themselves in the removal process, nor any of their co-Defendants in this matter. Defendant Foley & Lardner could not represent itself, as a partnership. Defendant Belveal could not represent Defendant Foley & Lardner, as she is a partner to the firm, and would be acting as agent of the LLP to represent itself. Defendants Belveal and Foley & Lardner, LLP could not represent their co-Defendants, especially on a civil conspiracy claim, as they ethically cannot act as an advocate where they would be required to testify as a witness, nor can they avoid an actual and pervasive conflict of interest under the Michigan ethics rules.
9. Lastly, under 28 USC § 1367, the Court may decline to exercise jurisdiction over State claims it would otherwise have original jurisdiction over if “the [state] claim[s] substantially predominate over the claim or claims over which the district court has original jurisdiction,” or “the district court has dismissed all claims over which it has original jurisdiction.” 28 USC § 1367(c)(2),(3).
10. Should this Honorable Court deny Plaintiffs’ motion to Amend the Complaint, this Honorable Court should respectfully sever the state claims and remand them to state court, as the remaining seven counts would all be state law causes of action and predominate substantively and substantially in this matter.

11. Should this Honorable Court grant Plaintiffs' Motion to Amend the Complaint, this Honorable Court could still sever the claims based on either subsections (2) or (3).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Honorable Court grant their Motion to Amend the Complaint and grant their Motion to Remand this action to State court.
